The Commander Speaks . . .

Activities and studies together make up your school life. They must be considered together because it has been proven by experience that if one or the other has been neglected your high school education has not been fully rounded. By combining the two forms of education you will be better able to face life after graduation than if you are a "bookworm" at one extreme or a "flitterbug" at the other.

This Treasure Chest is a record of school activities at John R. Rogers. Study it thoroughly. If you are not actively participating in one or more you are missing something more than the proverbial boat.

J. L. PURDY, Principal

The First Mate Speaks . . .

The good ship John Rogers has been sailing for several generations of high school "able-bodied seamen." Each crew has contributed to the glory, to the successes, and to the traditions of this worthy bark. This year's crew has, under its able leaders, manned a commendable cruise.

This, the Treasure Chest of 1952, is your log of the glories and the tribulations, of the victories and the defeats, of the ports, of the clashes on the gridiron, the court and the field.

In your own private log of the year 1951-52 did you man the sails and lay to the ropes with the spirit of a hardy seaman? Did you? Can you say with the famous early mariner, Ulysses: "I am a part of all I have met"? Certainly an overwhelming majority of our crew has been a part of all our successes, has valiantly faced the storms of unfavorable fortune and has finally warped the John Rogers to a safe port.

And these who have trod our decks for the last trip, may they in their new voyages on new seas be as Ulysses: "Strong in will to strive, to seek, to find and not to yield," worthy men and women in all the waters of life.

PAUL MacGOWN, Vice-Principal

The Second Mates Help Chart Our Course.

The Boys' Federation is organized to provide experience in operating a democratic organization. Executive officers and home room representatives are elected by popular vote. Among its functions are Hall Patrol, Conductors, Fire Squad and Athletic Patrol. Activities include nine general cons and nine sectional meetings, Mother-Son Banquet, Dads' Night, vocational conference and intramural sports.

E. B. CHRISMAN,
Boys' Federation Adviser

The Girls' League is an organization of all the girls in our high school, in which the interests and needs of these girls determine its form, its purpose and its activities.

Some of the objectives of the league are:

To promote friendship among the girls, to cultivate ideals of patriotism, loyalty, personal honor, responsibility and service; to inspire achievement on scholarship, leadership and school activities.

JAMES GORDON KELLOGG

Born — March 22, 1933

Died — August 25, 1951

Before that August morning Jim Kellogg's life was before him just as anyone else's of his age. Jim was planning for his future with all the hope of any youth. But unlike the other June graduates he was not given a chance to prove himself. In place of Jim there is now only a memory that remains. With the act of death comes a thought of mind. Why should a memory replace laughter, happiness and life? It is not even equal to the joy of life. But because there is a memory, a pause will be in the hearts of many graduates of 1952. But let this be a quick pause, for Jim would want it no other way. Jim would not want you to suffer just as He did not want Jim to suffer and gave him a sudden death. An empty space at baccalaureate and in the hearts of this graduation class is reserved for Jim. A pleasant fellow with a cheery smile was removed from our midst by his Maker and can be with us only in memory at this time.

Heading the Associated Student Body of John R. Rogers High School in the fall semester are these "Congressmen," the Fall A. S. B. Officers and Representatives. Elected in the home rooms, both the officers and student council representatives work together, usually holding one general and one student executive meeting a week.

Taking over in the spring semester, the spring A. S. B. OFFICERS determine such things as the spending of student funds and the conducting of the Spring Sports Queen contest. A new project accomplished by the STUDENT COUNCIL was the purchasing of a bus. Faculty adviser for the group is Paul MacGown.

Every girl in John Rogers belongs to the Girls' League. Operating in the same way as the A. S. B., the officers carry out the executive duties with the representatives supplying advice and suggestions from the home rooms. The Fall Girls' League Officers and Representatives conduct the business of the League in the fall term.

Two of the outstanding projects of the SPRING GIRLS' LEAGUE officers and representatives were Mothers' Teas—one for the senior girls and another for freshmen girls and their mothers; and the Vocational Conference which gave all students the opportunity to hear three speakers from about thirty-five different vocations.

Spring Girls' League Representatives

The Fall Boys' Federation Officers and Representatives were composed of all the enrolled Rogers boy students. They held general meetings in the auditorium where all the committee reports and other business was attended to by the group. Sectional programs also were held where the boys had a chance to hear varied programs of entertainment and interest.

Combining with the Girls' League, the spring semester BOYS' FEDERATION sponsors the annual Spring Dressup Day. Another successful project carried on by the merged groups was the annual vocational conference, held to give the students a picture of the advantages and disadvantages in approximately thirty-five fields of work.

Boys' Federation Representatives

First row: Clark, Wahl, Vigil, Johnson, Ellingsen, Sutherland. Second row: Orrino, Miller, Sannes, Mayer, Haven, Morrison. Third row: Foisy, Carroll, Torrence, Dikes, Kautz, Osterud, Allen, Apperson.

Boys' Federation
Advisers

Mr. MacGown,
Mr. Chrisman,
Mr. Keinholz,
Mr. Black.

Besides advising Girls' League work, the Girls' League Advisers offer guidance and help girls who have problems. The boys can receive the same kind of help from the Boys' Federation Advisers. Besides their advisory work, many of these teachers are kept busy teaching classes, many times giving up their own time to help students.

Fine Arts

Probably the busiest group at Rogers this year has been the BAND. Their total number of appearances for the year totaled over forty as they closed with their performance at the annual Memorial Day parade in Spokane. The honor of being the host band for the Spokane Lilac Festival was bestowed on the Rogers band this year and they were the only band called on to play during the evening pageant in the Memorial stadium on May 17. With the awarding of a superior rating at the Eastern Washington Music contest, the band gained the record of holding the longest list of superior ratings in this area. The 85-piece group also traveled to Walla Walla to give music support to the Rogers football team at their last game of the season.

Directing the band on the field this year was Drum Major Frank Elliot. He not only maneuvers the band around the field but also through the various parade formations.

Fifth row: Alger, R. Carroll, Apperson, Dixon, Herman, Corbin, Gilitherow, Robertson, Barnes, Knoke.

Lending their musical talent to convocations and programs of serious nature, the Rogers High School ORCHESTRA completed another successful year with their performance at the June Commencement exercises. The 42-piece group performed at the Winter and Spring concerts, the Commencement and Baccalaureate programs and two P.-T. A. open houses. Competing in the Eastern Washington Music contest the group received a rating of excellent. Later on in the spring the Orchestra and their director, William Thomas, began a concentrated drive to bring all the old violins that were not in use from the attics and basements in the neighborhood to school, where they could be put to good use in a beginning violin course to aid the future orchestras at Rogers.

The Rogers PEP BAND played at school dances and other informal affairs. They were directed by student leader Paul Hass.

Highlighting a successful season for the CHOIR this year was their appearance at the Washington Music Educators' Association convention in February at Yakima, Washington. The 85-voice choir also performed at the annual Spring and Winter concert, the Christmas program, the two school convocations, the Greater Spokane Music Festival and the Eastern Washington Music contest, where the group won a superior rating.

The Choir practices throughout the year in a regular class period and is made up of the "cream of the crop" singers at Rogers, selected by their director.

In charge of all the musical events at Rogers are the two ADVISERS pictured on the opposite page. They are responsible for a great deal of musical equipment, musical scores and are responsible for scheduling appearances for their groups and accompanying them. Forest Brigham is in charge of all vocal work at Rogers, while William Thomas heads the instrumental section.

Composed of 85 girls, the Rogers GIRLS' GLEE CLUB appeared at a number of school and local music festivals. They appeared at the Winter concert and the Spring concert, and completed their season by performing at the Christmas program and the Eastern Washington Music contest. They received the rating of excellent at this contest. The group is conducted by Forest Brigham and practices in a regular class period.

The group pictured on the opposite page is the TRIPLE TRIO, composed of nine singers and one piano accompanist. The group, an all-girl triple trio, sang at both of the annual concerts in the winter and the spring, as well as at the Christmas program, two convocations and the Eastern Washington College Music contest where they were judged superior by the panel of judges. They also entertained at a number of P.-T. A. meetings, lodge affairs, and church functions in Spokane.

Singing at one convocation at Rogers, the Rogers Winter and Spring concerts, the annual Christmas program, and receiving a rating of superior at the Eastern Washington College Music contest, the BOYS' GLEE CLUB completed a very successful year. They are able, at the present time, to boast that they are one of the few musical groups of this type in the Eastern part of the state. Numbering 85, the songsters practice daily in a class under the direction of Forest Brigham.

The BOYS' QUARTET, on the opposite page, is composed of four singers and one piano accompanist and is one of the popular singing groups at Rogers. Rating superior in the Eastern Washington Music Festival, the singers also appeared in the Spring and Winter concerts, two convocations, the Christmas program and at a number of P.-T. A., lodge, and church affairs.

With new uniforms to wear on color days and to basketball games, the Pirettes completed a very successful year that started with their pageant at the annual Merry-Go-Round game. The girls, advised by Eleanor Mele and Mildred Ryan, performed with the band at the Spokane Memorial stadium and at Walla Walla during the football season when the Pirates played. They continued to "back the team" by attending basketball games and color days in their new service uniforms of white sweaters with a purple symbol, black skirts and Rogers' booster hats.

During the last of April and the first of May, the Rogers gym resounded to the marching feet of girls trying out for the Pirette unit or for a majorette. Those girls picked to be accepted as a member of one of the two groups will continue on next year.

The fall play, "The Curious Savage," by John Patrick was presented in the Rogers auditorium November 9 and 10. The three-act comedy told of three adult step-children's attempt to snatch the family fortune from their step-mother by placing her in "The Cloisters," a mental rest home. How she successfully outwitted them and, with the help of the guests, gave them their "just desserts" made a very successful production. Marilyn York's five-year-old brother, Denny, also had a part in the play. Dale Brannon directed the production.

Review of 1951 Football Season

The Pirates began their 1951 season winning the annual Merry-Go-Round game at Memorial stadium by racking up a 6—0 score over Lewis and Clark in the first quarter. Then they rested for two quarters and outgained North Central in yards-gained-rushing for first place. The contest was rugged in spots, but the Pirates showed promise of having one of the strongest gridiron teams in Rogers' history.

Opening their city league schedule they defeated the Lewis and Clark Tigers, 20—7. This proved to be the beginning of a long string of bad breaks as the Pirate backfield was plagued with injuries.

Gonzaga was next on the Pirate list and were using an inverted T in their previous games. This proved disastrous to the Pirates as they were upset, 39—7.

Against the Indians of North Central, the Pirates made a slow start and could not close the gap. The scrapping Pirates went down to defeat, 19—13. Fumbles were the deciding factor in the ball game.

Opening the newly formed Columbia Basin league the Gonzaga Bullpups won a 20—13 thriller from Rogers. The game also counted as a city-league contest and the 18th annual Shrine game.

Rogers got back in the win column when they beat Lewis and Clark, 27—7. The game was played in a heavy layer of fog.

Yakima's Pirates were next to fall before the mighty Purple and Gold of Rogers. The game was marked with rough-and-tough defensive play by both teams. Rogers again won, 26—13.

Rogers was out-fought and ended up on the short end of a 46—13 score when they met North Central the second time. Fumbles in critical spots again proved disastrous for the Pirates.

A fast Walla Walla team ran over the Pirates, 39—0, in the season's final game at Borleske field in Walla Walla. Wa-Hi began strong with a touchdown in five plays from scrimmage. Fumbles and intercepted passes again proved disastrous for the Pirates. Walla Walla was later ranked second in the state.

Review of the 1952 Basketball Season

As a curtain-raiser for the 1952 Pirate basketball season, the Purple and Gold Bucs took a jaunt up to Omak where they lost their first game, 35-25. This was only the beginning of what turned out to be a thrilling season.

Cracking the win column in their next outing, Rogers rolled to an impressive 54-41 win over Cashmere. They led throughout the contest after taking an early lead.

Chelan stopped the Pirates the following night by a 38-32 margin.

Walla Walla outscored but didn't outfight the Pirates in Walla Walla. Wa-Hi, who later became the state champions, took the road-weary Bucs, 48-28.

Getting back into the win column again, Rogers downed Milton-Freewater 43-39. This was their only trip of the season to Oregon.

It seemed that the Pirates couldn't get a steady win streak going when they suffered their third setback of the season at the hands of Clarkston. The Bucs couldn't hit the basket in the second quarter while Clarkston ran up a safe lead.

With the preseason games all wound up, the Pirates headed for the annual West Valley invitational games at West Valley. On opening night they played host to Central Valley. The Pirates were off on their shooting and lost, 38-22.

Everyone but the Pirates were surprised when the West Valley Eagles, later to be city champs, fell before the Purple and Gold onslaught. In as thrilling a game as could be hoped for the Pirates tore the Eagles to pieces with knife-like rallies. The final score was 37-32 and the Pirates were fast becoming the toughest team to beat.

Rogers lost a heartbreaker as the city league got under way. They went down before North Central's Indians on a last-second swisher that is still argued over.

Shaky from their loss to N. C., the Pirates barely got by Gonzaga. The game was tight all the way but Rogers came out on top with a 29-27 score.

Lewis and Clark stopped the Pirates next. They won a hard-fought battle which wasn't over until the closing gun sounded.

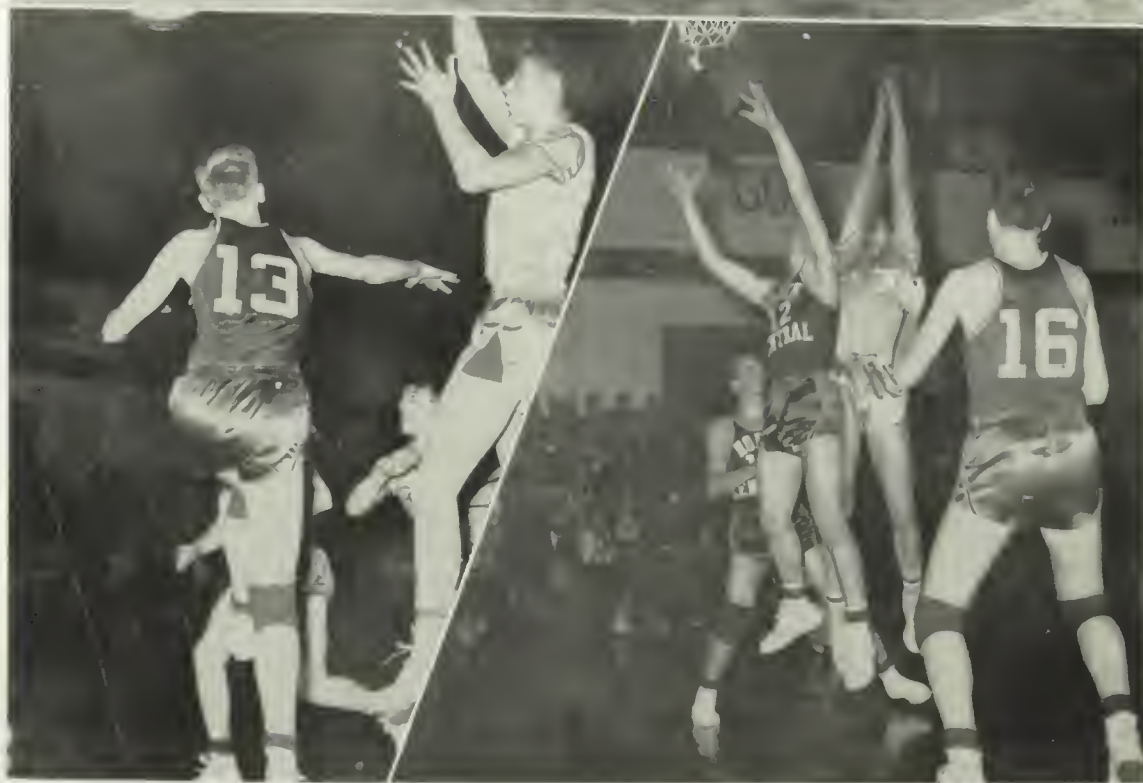

West Valley, aware of the Pirates strong rallies held them off to win, 43-31. The score was no indication of the battle put on by the Eagles and Pirates.

Rogers opened the second round of play, just waiting for the chance to get back at N. C., and gave the Indians more trouble than they bargained for. After Rogers got rolling it was only a matter of how large the score would be. The final outcome was Rogers 53, North Central, 27.

Rogers was now on the warpath and turned back Gonzaga, 54-31, for their longest victory string of the year.

Lewis and Clark, now fearing the Pirates very much, managed to stop them, 47-39. L. C. was in hot water up to their necks throughout the contest.

West Valley and Rogers met for the third time during the season in Rogers' last game. The Pirates were now noted for their strong comeback and had West Valley on their heels most of the way but West Valley managed to win, 50-41.

Review of the 1952 Baseball Season

Coach Joe Stover gave his first call for varsity players on March 1. Only pitchers and catchers were asked to turn out. On March 15, Coach Stover gave his call for the rest of the team and his call was responded to by a large turnout.

They played a dozen warm-up games to find the best pitchers, hitters, and fielders and to give the players practice which was badly needed.

Ready to start their city league campaign the Pirates had Arnold Joireman, and Fred Miller trading off on the catcher's duty. Earl Nelson was holding down first base, Skip Amsden was at second, Jim Frye taking the short-stop position and Gary Davis at third to complete the infield.

In left field was Jack Harrison, and centerfield was held down by Larry Armitage. Dean Williams was playing right field when he wasn't pitching.

Ready for mound duties were Dennis Ward, Stuart McDowell, Dean Williams, Lawrence Lewis, Jim Fischer and Dick Miller.

Jack Harrison and Dean Williams made up most of Rogers' batting power with Dick Miller the best mound prospect.

Rogers opened their city league baseball season with North Central only to be shut out 4-0. Jack Harrison got the only hit of the game in the first inning.

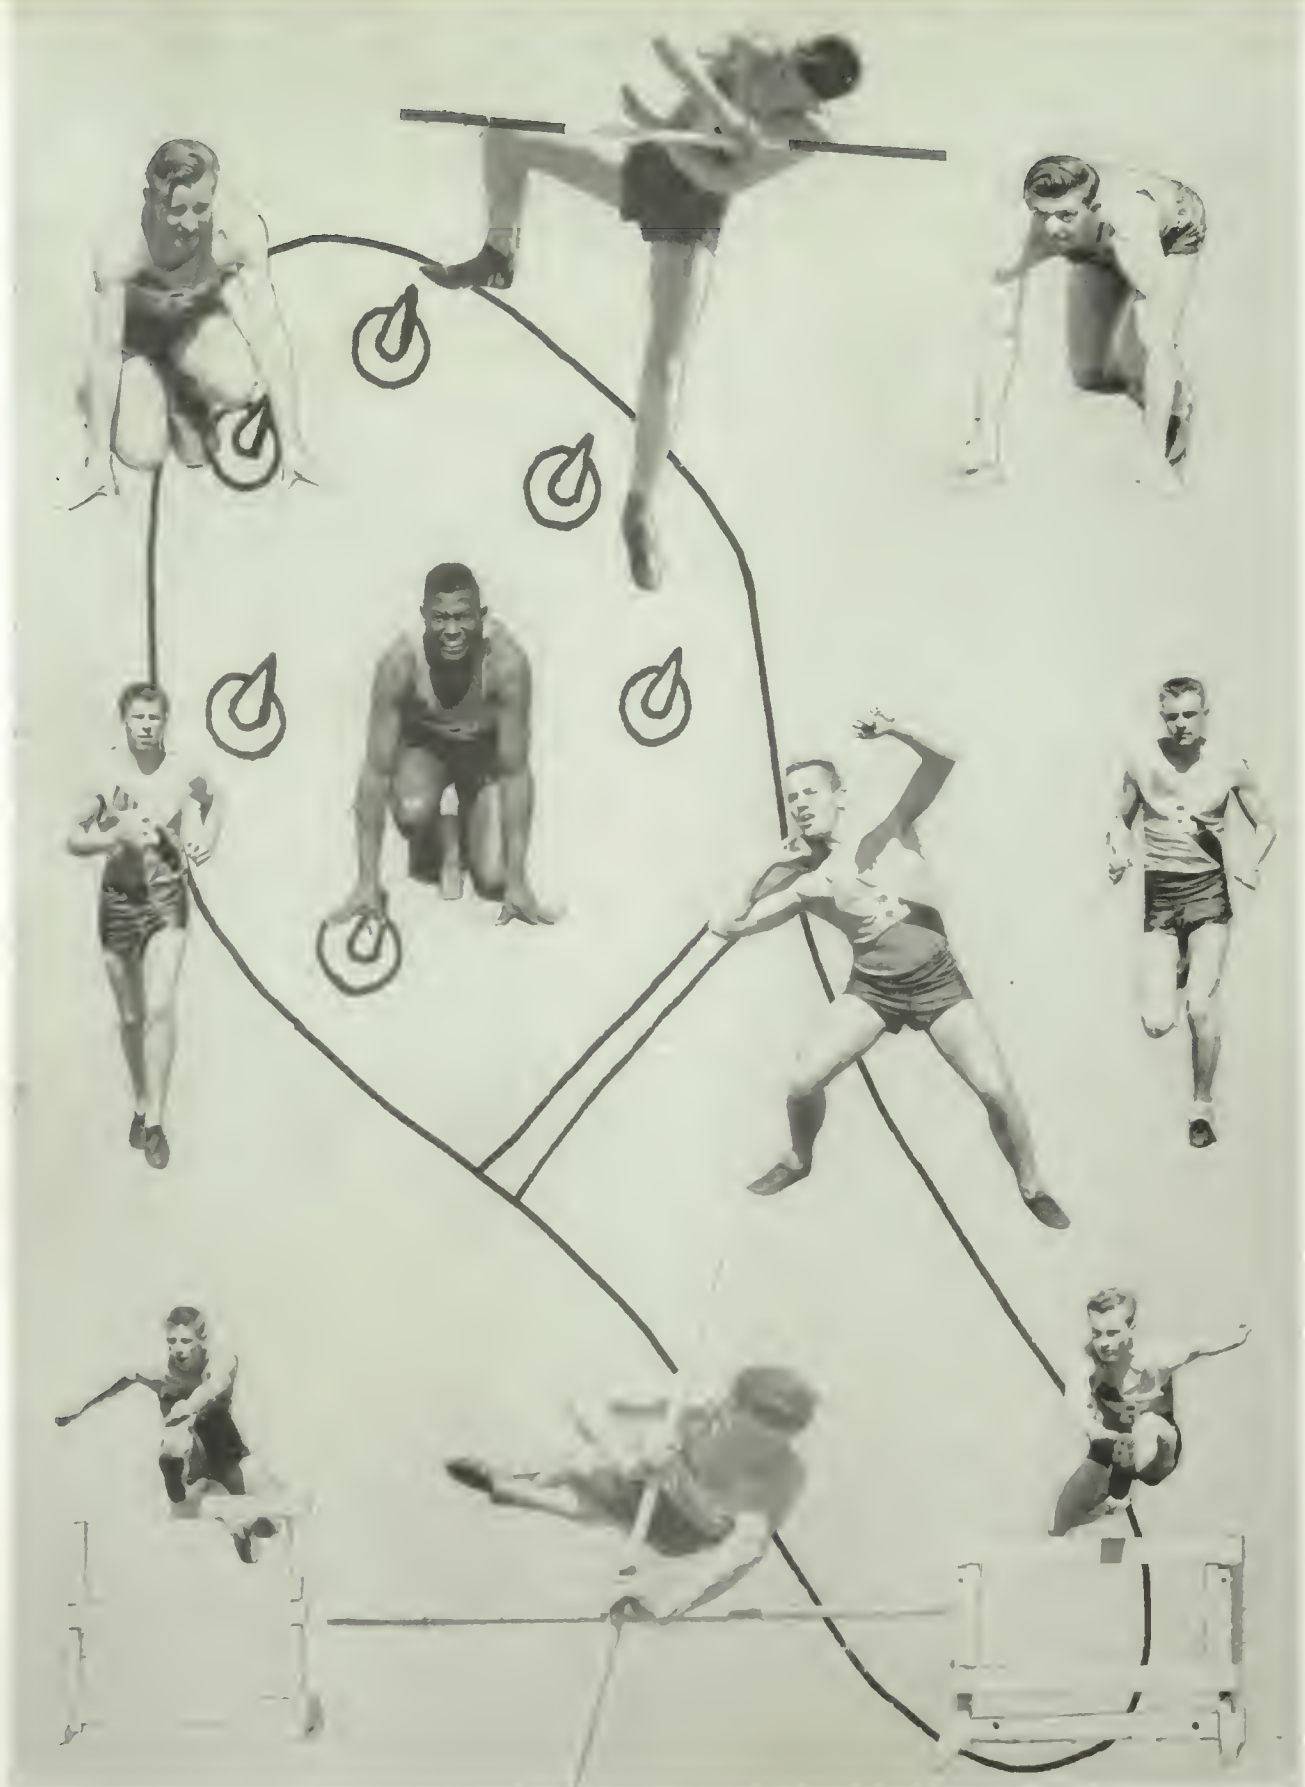

Next came Gonzaga, favorite to walk off with first place. Rogers threw a scare into the Bullpups crew in the game but were beaten 8-1. The Pirates were still having trouble in the hitting department.

Restless and determined to win, the Pirates headed for Hart field and an encounter with Lewis and Clark's Tigers, who were sharing the cellar with Rogers. Dick Miller got credit for a 3-1 victory and the first Pirate hurler to gain a city league victory this season.

Still determined to win, Rogers again encountered North Central with hopes of settling the first defeat. They got off to a 1-0 lead, then the North Central bats started booming and Rogers went down to defeat 15-5.

Chances of more victories looked hopeful as this publication went to press.

Review of the 1952 Track Season

A large turnout of men answered Coach James Elsensohn's call to the cinders for the 1952 season. With a nucleus of 12 returning lettermen to build a team on, and bolstered by a strong squad of underclassmen who showed promise of being point winners, Coach Elsensohn brought home top honors from all the meets.

The annual Pullman invitational meet, which was proving to be second only to the state meet, was dominated by the Pirates who grabbed 28 points, followed closely by the Walla Walla Blue Devils who garnered 27. Great Falls earned 20 while Lewis and Clark gained 14. Gravin McMann set a new meet record in the high jump with a leap of 5 feet 10 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches. Two hundred and fifty-two athletes from 27 schools attended the meet which is growing in popularity each year. The meet is for individual accomplishment rather than for team scores.

Yakima's invitational meet was held for the benefit of the schools in that area to get more experience and individual competition before the team's league campaign began. Dean Mock broke the low hurdle record in 13.9 seconds. Ron Green set a new pole vault record at 11 feet 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

In the first city league meet of the year, which was held on Meyer field, the Pirates dominated the broad jump and 100-yard dash to take the Lewis and Clark Tigers 73-31. Jack Shetter broke the old Rogers shot-put record with a put of 48 feet 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Rogers took all but three first place honors.

The Gonzaga Bullpups came to Rogers and found themselves heading back home with their tails between their legs and on the short end of a 58 $\frac{1}{2}$ -45 $\frac{1}{2}$ count. It was the third straight year that Rogers had defeated Gonzaga. Bill Geile sparked the Pirates with 11 points. Rogers split with Gonzaga in first place honors but took 6 of the 11 second place honors and 10 of 12 third place honors for the victory.

Rogers handed North Central the worst defeat they have suffered since 1945 when they romped over them 85-19. The Bucs swept the 100-yard dash, shot-put, broad jump, and the 220-yard dash. They took 11 out of the 12 first place events.

Bill Geile, Gravin McMann, Jim West, Idaho Davis, Dean Mock, Paul Johnson and Ron Green all won or placed high as the Rogers trackmen came out victorious in the All-City track meet May 9 at Hart field. This win gave Rogers their first undisputed track crown since 1946. Ron Green broke the pole-vault record by his vault of 12 feet $\frac{7}{8}$ inches.

Peterson,
Mr. Mabbott.

Boys' and Girls' TENNIS teams are competing with other school teams in both the fall and spring. Although they are not given as much publicity as the other Pirate teams they work just as hard. Some of the players may some day become great champions and be known the world over.

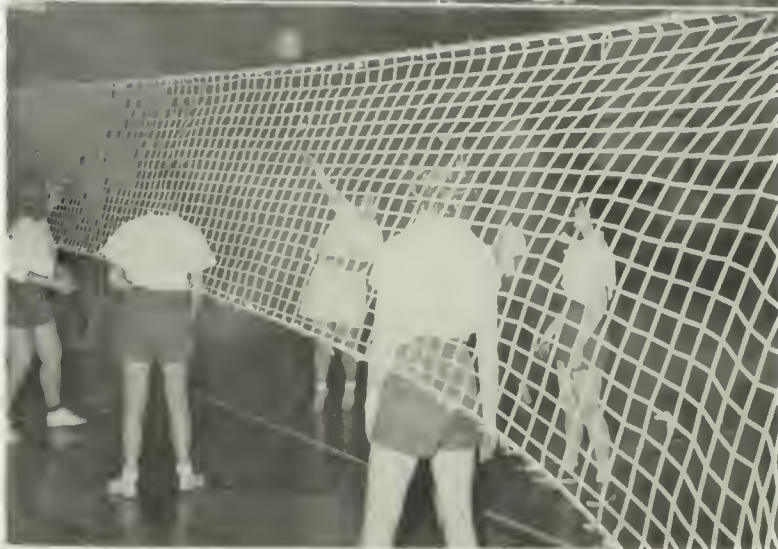

Girls' Tennis Team

First row: Reue,
Bump,
Hutchinson,
Kinnan. Second
row: Miss Mele,
Seiger, Yden,
Hansen,
Mahoney, Uttke,
Fay, Miss Ryan.

Turning out every Tuesday and Thursday nights the Rogers girls had a chance to earn points for their letters in GIRLS' ATHLETICS.

During the course of the year the girls followed the seasons by playing volleyball, basketball and softball. In the volleyball competition, the girls played the other Spokane high schools and the two junior high schools to cop the first-place city title. After the last volleyball game the girls began their basketball turnouts and developed into a very good team. They began the season by defeating the Havermale squad by a 29 to 14 count and after suffering two defeats already came up against a third when the Curlew team from Canada outscored them 47 to 22 in a night game at Rogers.

Then when spring invaded the Rogers high school playfields and melted the snow from the black-topped playing surface to the east of the schools, the girls opened their spring softball campaign. They spent their Tuesday and Thursday afternoons practicing and gained five points towards their letters for each turnout they attended. Their opponents they faced this spring were Havermale junior high school, Libby junior high school, West Valley high school and Lakeland Village. The girls athletic coaches were Miss Eleanor Mele and Miss Mildred Ryan. Probably the biggest improvement of the year for the Girls' Athletics department was reached when the black top playing area was blocked off to prevent the area from being used as a parking lot.

SUMMER LOVE SONG

They were out upon a picnic
And were sitting in the sand;
The moon was shining brightly
As he held her little shawl.

As he held her little shawl
How fast the time did fly;
His heart was beating wildly
As he gazed into her lunch basket.

As he gazed into her lunch basket
And wished he had a taste;
He felt extremely happy
With his arm around her parasol.

With his arm around her parasol
Fortunate was this young chap;
With happiness he trembled
As she sat upon his handkerchief.

As she sat upon his handkerchief
This charming sweet young miss;
Her lips an invitation
As he shyly stole a sandwich.

Open Letter to the Readers

Before you is your copy of the 1952 Treasure Chest. It is a virtual log of the activities, achievements, sorrows and joys of your year at Rogers High School. Opening last September with the first day in classes and closing after hectic days full of exams, lectures, labs and activities, we hope your Treasure Chest will bring back fond memories of school to you. We especially hope that this will be an accurate record for the seniors who are now finishing their high school careers.

In closing we wish to thank all of the people who helped us in publishing this yearbook, especially Don Townsend and his Trade School Print Shop gang, Pete Long at the Spokane American Engravers, our binders and all the students and faculty who helped us through the trying days.

DONNA NEWCOMB, 1952 Treasure Chest Editor
